  - The applicant or the applicant's representative.

The Panel Chair may exercise discretion and allow for an extension of time as required to ensure all issues are properly considered. Where there are a large number of objectors with a common interest, the Panel may hear a representative of those persons with a view to discharging its responsibilities in a timely manner.

14. A person is not entitled to be legally represented at any meeting of the Panel unless the Panel Chair grants permission in any particular case. On granting any such permission the Panel Chair shall have regard to the following matters:

Alternatively, the Panel may decide to adjourn the meeting to deliberate on all or any matters. If this occurs, the Panel will return to the public (open) meeting to announce its determination.
18. There is no further opportunity for debate with the Panel members or the applicant and/or their representatives and speakers are not allowed to enter-into unsolicited comment or argument with the Panel.
