|---|--|-------------|
| Item Nos. 3, 4, 5, 627-37 Railway Parade, Balmoral | Amend “beauty of its setting” to “setting”.  | Peer Review |
| Item No. 838 Jellore Street, Berrima               | Amend statement of significance consistent with Conservation Management Plan and delete from the statement of significance “The Conservation Management Plan identifies a further 4 trees as of high significance and 21 trees as having moderate significance due to their rarity in Australia.” Changes to the site over time and natural attrition may have altered the landscape significantly from when these statements were made. Additionally the reference to the ‘swing’ should be deleted as it no longer exists. The place retains significance for its historic use and associations and its contribution to the village character generally.Note: item name has been amended to “Berrima Bridge Nursery—outbuildings, garden and plants” as recommended in the Peer Review. | Peer Review |

| Item No. 524De Lauret Cottage, 86 Bong Bong Road,Renwick | Amend the statement of significance as follows: delete “it is significant because of its association with its namesake, Mrs A.M. De Lauret, who had the role of a Lady Visitor in the Goulburn District from 1883 - 1892.” There is no demonstrable associational significance. Delete “Of significance to former Renwick Homes children who resided in De Lauret Cottage from 1974 until its closure in 1982.” Many such residents have no desire to be associated with this place. | Peer Review             |

| Item No. 525Heydon Cottage,88-90 Bong BongRoad, Renwick  | Amend the statement of significance as follows:“‘Heydon Cottage’ within the grounds of the Highlands School, Bong Bong Road Renwick, is significant because it illustrates the development of the Renwick Farm Homes site at Mittagong, in this case a Cottage Home erected in 1916 during World War I to receive boys sent to Renwick by the Children’s Court. It is also significant for its association with The Honourable Louis F Heydon L.F., M.L.C. (1848-1918) who was a member of the State Children Relief Board (1892 - 1918) The place also demonstrates the principal characteristics of a class of the local area’s built heritage, in this case a large, well built, single storey Federation style residence. It also possesses a rare aspect of the local area’s heritage for its early use of concrete block construction.” | Peer Review |
